

2pm Hallo Panda Comedy

An unromantic comedy about a man and a talking bear. Mark is an American in London for the culture of drinking. Panda is a Chinese bear, here to mate with a female he can't bare. Trapped and lonely, they become friends. Mark loves Sarah, Sarah only loves moths, and if Panda won't mate, Mark will have to give him a hand...

4pm Jonahs Quids Jonah is a short 13 year old who lives on a South London estate. One day Jonah finds a fifty pound note wedged in a bush on a road near his home. Realising this is the opportunity he has been waiting for he plucks up the courage and asks Crystal, a 15 year old girl he walks to school with, out on a date – an all expenses paid day trip to his childhood favourite seaside town of Margate.

Visiting out of season though, Jonah soon realises that the town is not as he remembered it, there isn't much here to spend fifty pounds on, and attempting to impress Crystal might be a pointless affair.

6 pm Double Act

A man in a chicken suit love triangle musical with a twist. He's got an allotment. This is the story of a comedy double act (Chris and Tel) and their relationships with their wives (Vicky and Donna). It's about love, betrayal, revenge and feathers.
